

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Daniel Boothby

v.

Civil No. 10-cv-424-JL

Erik Jorgensen, et al.

O R D E R

The defendants' request for a view is denied. The reasons offered by the defendants do not warrant the expenditure of judicial, administrative, security, and jury time and resources involved. Further, and important, there is nothing preventing the defendants from taking and presenting additional photographic or video evidence if they believe that it would better or more accurately depict the areas in question. See U.S. v. Gray, 199 F.3d 547, 550 (1st Cir. 1999) (whether a view is appropriate is "committed to the trial court's informed discretion").

SO ORDERED.

Joseph N. Laplante
United States District Judge
